The Haines Shoe House

If you like new impressions, go and have a visit to the Haines Shoe House in Hallam, Pennsylvania, along the Lincoln Highway. You can take Shoe House Road to get to the house. The shoe house is visible from the road. So if you miss the sign for it you will see when to get off the highway.

The shoe house is quite a sight! It is not very big. It is 48 feet long and 25 feet high at the top. There are five different levels inside the house. There are three bedrooms, two bathrooms, a kitchen and a living room on each level. The living room is in the toe of the shoe, the kitchen is in the heel. There are two bedrooms in the ankle. There is even an ice cream shop. It is in the "instep. So, the Shoe House has so many rooms in it.

Everyone enjoys his tour of the Shoe House very much. You can always chat with a current "lady who lives in a shoe". It is a house of a married couple: Carleen Farabaugh and her husband Ron. These friendly folks are the 4th owners of The Shoe. They spend their weekends from spring till autumn giving tours and letting people know about this great local landmark. During the season Carleen and Ron spend their weekends and stay inside the shoe itself. Ron also keeps busy making small Shoe Houses. They are for sale at the gift shop.

1 The Shoe House is in America. .....
2 The Shoe House is rather small. .....
3 The first owner is Carleen Farabaugh. .....
4 The Shoe House is very beautiful. .....

20TH CENTURY FASHION

1. Before the First World War fashions didn't change very quickly. Men wore dark suits. They had short hair and moustaches were popular. Women wore long dresses and they had long hair. Under their dresses they wore stiff corsets. These gave women a very narrow waist, but they were very uncomfortable.

2. In the Roaring Twenties dresses and hair became much shorter. People saw women's knees for the first time! Corsets disappeared. A straight figure with no waist was fashionable. For men trousers with very wide legs became fashionable. They were called Oxford bags.

3. In the 30th and 40th hair, dresses and coats became longer again. Men's fashion didn't change very much. Men wore a suit, a tie and usually a hat, too. Moustaches were less popular.

4. In the 1950s people were richer and teenagers spent a lot of money on clothes. For men this was age of a teddy boy. Teddy boys wore long jackets in very bright colours – pink, orange or yellow – and very tight trousers. For women jumpers and blouses with wide skirts and short socks were the fashion. Both men and women wore shoes with long pointed toes. The women's shoes had high heels.

5. The 1960s saw a revolution in clothes. Everything changed. This was the time of the mini- skirt and long boots. For the first time in the twentieth century men had long hair – the famous Beatle haircut.

6. In the late 1960s and the early 70th the hippy "flower power" style was in. Women were long maxi-skirts. Men wore jeans and brightly coloured shirts or T-shirts. Clothes were very colourful. Very long hair was fashionable for men and women, and beards became more common (only for men, of course).

7. The 80s brought teenagers with punk hair styles in red, blue, purple and green and brightly coloured make up.
